

SENIORNET JULY 2010 OFFERINGS

GREATER SPRINGFIELD AND LONGMEADOW, MA (JULY 2010)

The SeniorNet Computer Center at the Springfield Jewish Community Center offers a variety of computer courses monthly for adults. Classes begin July 6, 2010 and include classes in Computer Basics for Beginners, and a Day & Evening Class in Word Part 1. There will also be a special workshop on Email. There are openings in most courses. Please call 732-1336 for information on available spots in July and also for information regarding other courses.

Computer Basics for Beginners – 8 hours (2 hours twice a week for 2 weeks)

Learn the vocabulary of computers, how to use the mouse, and basic word processing

Tues. & Thurs. 9-11 A.M. 7/6-7/15

Word Part 1– 8 hours (2 hours twice a week for 2 weeks)

A continuation of word processing for those who have completed Computer Basics for Beginners

Mon. & Wed. 9-11 A.M. 7/19-7/28

Tues. & Thurs. 6:30-8:30 P.M. 7/20-7/29

SPECIAL WORKSHOP!

EMAIL

Learn the basics of email, practice sending and receiving emails, create an address book, open and send attachments.

Thursday – 1-3 P.M. 7/29

Please Note: Minimum number for all classes is 5 students. The course will be cancelled and /or rescheduled if there are not 5 paid registrants.

All classes are held at the SeniorNet Computer Center, Springfield Jewish Community Center, Neal Webber Building, 1160 Dickinson St., Springfield, MA 01108. Please call 732-1336 or email sjc@seniornet.org to register or for information.